

The Naperville Junior Woman's Club held its 39th annual fashion show fundraiser, "Earth, Wind & Fire: Elements of Desire" featuring NBC 5 Meteorologist Ginger Zee, as Master of Ceremony. More than $25,000 was raised for DuPage PADS and Naperville Safety Town and over 400 attended the sold-out fashion show for an afternoon of fashion, fun and fundraising at the Lisle-Naperville Hilton.

The event included a silent auction, raffles, grand prizes, marvelous goodie bags, a delicious luncheon, signature "Earth, Wind & Fire" cocktails and a fashion show produced by ZZAZZ Productions.

"We are thrilled to have raised more than $25,000 for DuPage PADS and Safety Town! We are truly blessed to be a part of such a giving community," said Leanne Meyer-Smith, President of the Naperville Junior Woman's Club.

"This was a special event involving many community partners and countless hours of volunteer work from our Club members. To put together an event of this caliber is fantastic, but to sell it out is incredible!" said Diana Williams, Fashion Show Chairwoman.

Special guests included NC17 TV's News Anchor Dolly McCarthy who modeled the grand prize Jimmy Choo bag and Naperville Councilman Doug Krause who worked the runway in a fur coat.
