PRESS RELEASE INFO:

Naperville Junior Woman's Club 40th Anniversary

Happy 40th Anniversary to the Naperville Junior Woman's Club (NJWC)! 2007 commemorates the organization's commitment to serving the community since 1967. Naperville Junior Women continue to dedicate themselves to community improvement through their volunteer efforts. The Naperville Junior Woman's Club strives to provide charitable not-for-profit services to our community. Members volunteer countless hours annually educating children on safety, bringing smiles to the aged, assisting the handicapped and funding many local, state, and national organizations. The Club's annual philanthropic contributions are in excess of $75,000.

NJWC owns and operates, in junction with community partners the Naperville Police and Fire Departments, Safety Town, located at the corner of River and Aurora Roads. Safety Town includes a classroom building and a kid-sized town complete with buildings, streets, a fire safety house, railroad crossing and traffic signs and signals.

Visit www.napervillejuniors.org for more information on NJWC or Safety Town.

For information on upcoming programs at Safety Town, please send an e-mail to SafetyTown@napervillejuniors.org or call the Safety Town hotline at (630) 369-8400.
