NJWC Awards $3,000 in Scholarships to Local Students

Contact: NJWC PR Chair (name/# not to be printed/published)

Naperville- The Naperville Junior Woman's Club (NJWC) awarded three, $3,000 scholarships to graduating Naperville seniors at its May General Meeting. Ben Aymond graduate of Naperville North High School, Molly Pawelski graduate of Neuqua Valley High School and Brian Failing graduate of Naperville North High School each received a $1,000 scholarship from the NJWC.

The NJWC gives out scholarships annually to graduating seniors from the Naperville area (applicants must reside within either Naperville School District #203 or Indian Prairie School District #204). Scholarships are awarded based on financial need, community service, school involvement, and scholastic achievement.

Ben Aymond will be attending the University of Illinois, Molly Pawelski will be attending the University of Arkansas, and Brian Failing will be attending North Central College in Naperville. Congratulations to our 2010 NJWC Scholarship Winners.

The Naperville Junior Woman's Club is looking for energetic, enthusiastic women to join our Club. Each year our members give thousands of hours of service to the community and thousands of dollars to various charitable organizations including Safety Town. Please view our website, www.napervillejuniors.org or call our hotline at 630-575-9567 for more information about the Club.
