Naperville, IL – The Naperville Junior Woman's Club announces the offering of two scouting programs.

The Scouts Play it Safe Program is taught by the Naperville Fire and Police Departments and is open to Brownie and Wolf Scouts. During the hour and a half program, the scouts will learn bike safety, pedestrian safety, stranger safety, fire safety, 911 and crime awareness. The dates are October 11, 2010 and January 17, 2011.

CSI-Cub Scouts Investigate is taught by the Naperville Police Department and is open to Cub Scouts. During the two-hour program, scouts will learn about crime awareness and prevention as well as go on a tour of the Police Station. The date for the program is November 2, 2010.

Please visit the Naperville Junior Woman's Club website, www.napervillejuniors.org, for registration information. The courses are open to troops within school districts 203 and 204 boundaries. The programs will take place at Safety Town, which is located at 1320 Aurora Avenue in Naperville. Upon completion of the program, each scout will receive a Safety Town patch.

The Naperville Junior Woman's Club is looking for energetic, enthusiastic women to join our Club. Each year our members give thousands of hours of service to the community and thousands of dollars to various charitable organizations including Safety Town.
